enhance the mission of the Organization. Board approved policies govern the use of earnings which can be expended to provide general support to Archaeology Southwest. Earnings on the endowments are unrestricted.

Part X, Line 2:

Archaeology Southwest is exempt from federal and state income taxes under the Federal Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") Section 501(c)(3) and Arizona income tax laws and is classified as other than a private foundation under IRC Section 509(a)(1). ASW also qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(a). PPP is a single-member limited liability company which is a disregarded entity for income tax purposes. PPP's income from certain activities not directly related to the ASW's tax-exempt purpose may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Management believes such a tax liability is not material to these consolidated financial statements.

Management has considered its tax positions in accordance with the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes and believes that all positions taken in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. In addition, Management is not aware of any matters which would cause the Organization to lose its tax-exempt status. The Organization's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Should the Organization ever be subject to interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits, they would be classified in general and administrative expenses in its accompanying consolidated financial statements. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Organization did not recognize any interest and penalties.

This multimedia experience-developed in collaboration with The Wilderness Society and Conservation Lands Foundation-informs the public about why the region is so deserving of protection and introduces Arizonans from all walks of life who support its protection.

Conservation Properties: As of 2022, 22 sensitive and significant heritage places are now protected through Archaeology Southwest's commitments and partnerships with landowners and continuing support from our staff members, our donors and volunteers, and the Arizona Site Stewards program administered by Arizona State Parks.

Save History: Save History is an anti-looting movement created to inform the public on the consequences of archaeological resource crimes. SaveHistory.org centers Tribal perspectives on how to respectfully steward archaeological resources and instructs members of the public on how to identify and report looting and related crimes.

Accomplishments in 2022 included the production of a Save History Digital Toolkit, educational content for social media, a two-page fact sheet, and branded stickers. We reached thousands of new allies through print advertisements in the Native American Art Magazine special issue for the 100th year anniversary of the Santa Fe Indian Market (20,000+

Over the course of three field sessions, the team documented, processed, and backfilled damaged areas surrounding an ancient ballcourt. Our experts incorporated training in forensic sedimentology, law-enforcement investigative techniques, and ARPA response methods into fieldwork and classroom sessions. We also provided several 40-hour ARPA trainings and archaeological site damage assessments at various locations throughout the West.

Student and staff research resulted in many new insights about the Salado phenomenon in New Mexico in the 1300s, including how people from several different cultural backgrounds came together to form successful new communities.

Lower Gila: The team completed its fieldwork and is currently wrapping up a report to share its findings with Tribal partners, the professional community, and the interested public. Team members also published two important reports. One charts the course of an Indigenous trail network that connects communities in the middle Gila River valley with companions along the lower Gila via an overland route across the Great Bend of the Gila. The other was prepared in support of the Nevada Avi Kwa Ame Coalition's efforts to preserve Avi Kwa Ame, a mountain on the edge of the Mohave Valley that is the spiritual birthplace for most
